We wonder where and why some of the teachers were not at school Monday morning?

Those dreaded quarterly exams begin this week Thursday.

When all are winks and wunk, And all are thinks are think, What will save us from a flunk.

Jokes.

Edgar McPhee, saying his prayers at night: "Dear Lord try and make me a good boy and if at first you don't succeed try, try, again."

Beulah: "If an English teacher is a bookworm, what is a Geometry teacher?"

Lucilla: "I don't know."

B. C.: "Why an angle worm."

Mr. Smith: "You are an honest boy, but the money I lost was a $10 note."

Wilbur Gould: "Yes, I know but I had it changed so you could give me a reward."

A Romance.

We went into the garden,
We wandered o'er the land;
The moon was shining brightly—
I held her little—shawl.
Yes, I held her little shawl,
How fast the evening flies;
We spoke in tones of love,
I gazed into her—lunch basket.
I gazed into her lunch basket,
I wished I had a taste;
Here sat my lovely darling,
My arms around her—umbrella.
Embracing her umbrella,
This charming little miss;
Her eyes were full of mischief,
I slyly stole a—sandwich.

Domestic Science Hints as told by experts:

1. In boiling potatoes you can tell they are done when they begin to unbutton their jackets.
2. Three tablespoonsful of salt in a glass of water makes it quite unfit for drinking purposes.
3. Kidney Bean Salad. First rustle up a sack, jar, or loaf of kidney beans. Extract from vehicle. Swing each bean for one hour in the victrola, talking wildly through out. Shave their necks until they plead for mercy, and then chase them merrily. When you get them in a corridor, grab in a rigid embrace and do the "Society Walk." This salad is lovely.

BATTLE OF THE ELECTION BALLOTS

COOLIDGE RUNS STRONG IN COUNTY.

Grayling Republicans Win All But 2 Offices.

The voting in general thruout the county was large at last Monday's election. Grayling township turned out 462 votes against 484 last year, which however was considered a big vote. Coolidge was given nearly two votes to Johnson's one in the county. Even Grayling, which gave Johnson a majority of 109 over General Wood four years ago, was strong for Coolidge.

It is estimated that Coolidge's vote will be about 290 and Johnson's 150 in the county.

For Democratic president Ferris had a majority of about fifty over Ford, altho thruout the state Ford ran far ahead of Senator Ferris.

South Branch Township.

South Branch township presented two tickets, Republican and Union, the results being very close. Oliver B. Scott, Republican, for supervisor, was elected over Joseph J. Royce by 41 to 38 votes.

The voting on the entire ticket was about equally close, the Republicans winning all offices except that of member of board of review which went to Boyd J. Funch by a majority of three. Seventy nine ballots were cast.

This township gave Coolidge 25, and Johnson and Simpson each one. Ferris received 13 and Henry Ford 2.

Beaver Creek Township.

William Ferguson, republican who has been clerk of the township for several years, was elected supervisor over Alonzo D. Kile by a vote of 59 to 27. The Republicans won all offices except those of highway commissioner and member board of review.

For highway commissioner Frank L. Millikin, union, defeated Alton Brott, republican 54 to 32. Frank Love, union, defeated John R. Skingley republican, for member board of review, 43 to 38.

This township too gave Coolidge a good majority. The vote was as follows: Republican—Coolidge 28, Johnson 10 and Simpson 3.

Democratic—Ferris 10, Ford 6.

Maple Forest Township.

The voters of Maple Forest township eclipsed, apparently, all former elections when the Unionists swept the Republicans all out of office at one swipe. Every Republican was defeated. This includes William Feldhauser, who for the past several years has been the supervisor of that township, and a mighty able representative too. He was defeated by Rufus Edmunds. The latter has made several attempts to get elected to that office and has finally succeeded. The votes were very close, Edmunds having only five majority. Both men are well liked in their home community where each is well known. While we can truthfully say that Maple Forest has lost a good supervisor, we believe Mr. Edmunds will also render good service in that office.

We have no definite figures on the primary election; it is reported that Johnson for president received a majority of the votes.

Grayling Township.

462 votes were cast in Grayling Township Monday, which is 22 less than last year. The entire republican ticket was elected except clerk and treasurer. Clarence Brown republican, was defeated for clerk Alfred Hanson, Democrat by a vote of 277 to 174. It is generally considered that Brown made a most wonderful campaign when it is known that his opponent is one of the best liked young men in Grayling. Besides this he is the present clerk and his work has been exceptionally competent; and he is an ex-service man and a member of the American Legion.

For treasurer Holger F. Peterson, republican and ex-postmaster, was defeated by Chas. O. McCullough, democrat by a vote of 346 to 104.

Grayling is to have a new supervisor in the person of Edward S. Houghton, who will succeed Melvin A. Bates, who retires to act as postmaster. Mr. Houghton is fully competent to fulfill the important duties of this office. For two terms he served as county treasurer. He was also superintendent of road construction most of the time during which trunk line M14 was built thru the county. He is an experienced surveying engineer and as such is pretty well acquainted with land values in the township.

Following is a tabulated account of how Grayling voted:

WOMAN DID WORK OF TWO HORSES.

An extension agent in Virginia called on the specialist in rural engineering for advice in the case of a woman who wished to install running water in her home. A report received by the United States Department of Agriculture states that after a survey of the premises it was found that the housewife was walking 140 miles per year and expending enough energy in lifting water to do the work of two horses in plowing 11 acres of land. A small hydraulic ram, overhead storage, kitchen sink, and waste pipe were purchased for $49, which put running water into the kitchen.

COOLIDGE WINS IN MICHIGAN PRIMARY

PRESIDENT CARRIES STATE BY COMFORTABLE MAJORITY OVER JOHNSON.

VOTE WAS EXCEEDINGLY LIGHT

Inclement Weather and Unpassable Roads Held Vote to Mere Shadow of Normal Strength.

Detroit—Returns from the Michigan presidential primary election gave Calvin Coolidge the victory over his principal rival, Hiram Johnson, by a comfortable majority. The vote was very light throughout the entire state.

On the democratic ticket Henry Ford and Woodbridge N. Ferris ran neck and neck for the Democratic endorsement, even though neither is an avowed presidential candidate and the absence of any real contender's name from the ballot virtually will amount to leaving the Democratic delegation to the national convention unimpaired.

James E. Davidson, of Bay City, was re-elected Republican national committeeman from Michigan with a majority over Paul Martin, of Battle Creek, former state commander of the American Legion and Frank A. Rasch, of Detroit, in third place. For the Democratic committee membership, State Chairman William A. Comstock was an easy winner.

One of the interesting features of the election was the light Democratic vote cast. Although Ferris, running for senator, carried Michigan in the last general election, his party's total vote was only about one-sixth of that cast by the majority party.

Two-Thirds of Voters Stay Home

The total vote was little more than a shadow of the state's total voting strength.

Inclement weather, which was general throughout Michigan, discouraged voting and left impassable roads in the farm districts. There was a marked public indifference. Less than 300,000 went to the polls of the more than 1,000,000 registered.

Flint was an exception to the indifference elsewhere in the state. A bitterly contested battle between well-organized political factions over a $1,000,000 bond issue for a new courthouse aroused much interest and produced a vote approaching normal.

Every question submitted to the Detroit voters at the primary met with overwhelming approval. The two charter amendments which provide for doubling the present pension scale to the widows and orphans of policemen and firemen killed while on duty met with very little opposition. They increase the pensions to widows from $50 to $100 per month and to orphans from $10 to $20 per month.

These amendments were the chief topic of discussion during the entire campaign, even overshadowing the issues involved in the presidential campaign.

Detroit Increases Area.

The vote of the people on Monday also will add materially to the area of Detroit, portions of Gratiot and Hamtramck being annexed. Only last fall the people voted to take in about 14 square miles by annexation of a portion of Redford and a portion of Greenfield township.

Jackson voted on a $1,000,000 sewer bond issue, Kalamazoo on a municipal light distribution plan, Battle Creek on a $100,000 grade separation project and on the question of adopting Eastern time. Owosso had a hot local contest for the office of public improvement commissioner and a $30,000 bond issue for installing a platoon system in its fire department; Ann Arbor passed on several charter amendments and bond issues; Pontiac on a $980,000 bond issue for city improvements and a one-half mill tax for a county infirmary; and Monroe on annexations which would double the city's area, also on a $200,000 bond issue for a new county building.

BORAH FLAYS G. O. P. AND DEMS

Says Big Campaign Contributions Corrupt Both Old Parties.

Washington—So long as the great political parties of the nation continue to accept huge campaign contributions from those interested in legislation and federal administration America will have "sinister, corrupt, and controlled government," Senator William A. Borah, of Idaho, declared in an address to the students' conference on citizenship and law observance here.

Such contributions "lead to that sinister and subtle influence which does more to break down representative government than any specific in stance of open bribe," he declared adding that the open bribe followed inevitably as a result of the practice.

Borah lashed the Democratic and Republican parties for a "tacit truce" not to expose or criticize the campaign contribution evil, declared the senate scandal investigations have uncovered not only rottenness "but the high purpose and incorruptible patriotism of the American people."

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE REPORT FOR MARCH

(By Margaret Squires)

The past four weeks have kept us more or less busy with the new outbreak of scarlet fever but the health officer reports that the cases are now decreasing.

Besides this the hot lunch has gone on with somewhere about 20 members all the month. This small group has worked very well and has been quite comfortably handled. The finances have been a little harder to manage as about half, and part of the time, more than half, have had no money, but owing to donations of potatoes and other things and money we have finished (by careful planning) with the $2 loaned us at the beginning, and intend to return it for starting again next year. We will not continue the hot lunch after vacation.

We had a special dinner on Friday, prepared by the Domestic Science class. Mr. Smith and Mr. Bailey spoke to the children. Mr. Smith told them, since they had been fed and taught they should show their appreciation by following instructions about clean hands etc. Mr. Bailey talked of garden making and showed pictures of fruit, vegetables and flowers that they could raise this summer. The children shouted with enthusiasm over the beautiful strawberries and other things.

Plans have also been laid to furnish milk at school beginning with the spring term. The weighing and measuring of all the children has been completed. The health center is not yet open, owing to illness of those in charge of getting it ready but we hope to be using it soon.

The "beauty parlor" is interesting, the girls and they are asking how soon it will be open. The work of the beauty parlor has already begun at my office only they do not know it. It might as well be called a personal hygiene, or good health parlor, but would not attract the girls at all in that case.

I have found several suspicious cases, and I have a list of 69 children who have had teeth and tonsil defects corrected for from two to four years. I intend to begin at once

FOREST PROTECTION WEEK PROCLAIMED BY PRESIDENT

Forest protection week for 1924 has been designated by President Coolidge for April 21-27, inclusive, announces the Forest Service, United States department of agriculture.

In his proclamation, President Coolidge calls attention to the appalling losses that occur each year from forest fires, and urges all citizens, either in association or as individuals, to protect all wooded areas from fire. Governors of many States will issue proclamations supplementing the one issued by the President, and Arbor Day in several States will be observed during forest protection week.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and W. B. Greeley, chief of the forest service, have many times emphasized the importance of preventing forest fires, about 36,000 of which every year sweep 11,000,000 acres of land.

People Are Careless With Fire.

Secretary Wallace has stated that eight out of every ten forest fires result from human carelessness and will not happen once the public is brought face to face with the serious losses these fires cause. These losses fall especially heavy on the American public since the United States uses more saw timber than all other nations combined.

Chief Forester Greeley says it is not difficult for everyone to be careful with fire while in wooded areas. Here are simple rules which if observed will go far toward reducing making calls on these and hope to get in touch with them all before the roads open up for me to get outside of Grayling. Now that the snow is off so that I can use the car even in defects in corrected for from two to four years. I intend to begin at once

Find Bronze in Copper

Chemical analyses have revealed that much of the so-called bronze found in ancient ruins or monuments is not bronze at all but copper of a rather high degree of purity considering the facilities for smelting the metal in those early days. This is especially the case with such objects found in the old Egyptian and Mesopotamian remains. On the other hand the bronze bands from the gates of the palace of Sumeru in the time of the Pharaohs, which are really bronze, containing about 9 per cent of tin. Copper rather than bronze seems to have been the earliest used metal. Iron was known to the ancient Egyptians, but was so rare and costly that it was used in jewelry.

Origin of Term "Dun"

Opinion differs as to the origin of the term "dun," used for a missive seeking to collect money. Some maintain it is derived from the French word "donnez," meaning "give," but others claim it comes from the name of Joe Dun, famous as a bailiff in the time of Henry VII, for having collected so many debts. It is said that in those days when a man refused to pay it became a saying, "Why don't you Dun him?"

FROM FAR AND NEAR

Etiquette is the science of overcoming the outcropping of what might be vulgarity.

Owing to the low price of horses and labor in England, a marked tendency to replace tractors with horses has been noted.

The consumption of sugar in the United States last year was about 5,000,000 long tons or almost 100 pounds per person.

Our idea of a modest man is one who can keep his opinion of himself to himself.

Dry weather and insect pests are reported to have caused the failure of cotton growing experiments in New South Wales, Australia.

Including rivers and canals, it is estimated that no part of England is more than fifteen miles from water communication.

Tennis Rapidly Gaining Followers in Australia

Tennis is rapidly supplanting cricket as the most popular outdoor sport in Australia, according to the Sydney Referee, the well-known sporting periodical. It points out that during Christmas week there were tournaments at South Yarra, Camperdown, Ballarat, Sale, Kalbarrie and Frankston. In which more than 1,500 competitors took part. There is a tremendous rush of tournaments all over Australia and the state championships are attracting more entries than ever before.

"In Victoria," says the Referee, "the cricketing clubs in the country towns are finding their leading players prefer tennis to cricket and they cannot get teams together without difficulty. The cricketers seem to prefer a practice game of lawn tennis to their own love. Times are surely changing."

Most Northern Section

The most northern part of the United States proper is 100 miles in Beltrami county, Minnesota, on the northwestern shore of the Lake of the Woods. This tract is completely separated from the state of Minnesota by the lake and cannot be reached by land without traveling over Canadian territory. It came into the possession of the United States through a geographical error in the treaty of Paris signed in 1783, the original surveyors believing that this territory was south of the forty-ninth parallel instead of north of it.

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation, send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing, be sure and mention this paper—Advertisement.

Grayling friends of Thomas Oliver of Decatur, Ill., a former resident of Grayling, will be pleased to know that he has been put on the pension roll of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
Mr. Oliver has been in the railroad service 54 years, altho only being in the employ of the Pennsylvania system for 23 years and in the capacity of yardmaster. About a year ago, while at work in the Decatur yards
he had the misfortune to lose a leg when run over by a stock car being switched in the yards. While ordinarily a man of Mr. Oliver's years of service would not come under the pension rule, the fact that he was incapacitated by having lost his leg makes his retirement necessary.
Twenty-five years ago Mr. Oliver was employed as trainmaster of the M. C.
R. R. in Grayling. He was the wife of the late Mrs. Anna Oliver, and is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Rebecca Wight of this city.

CAN'T PREDICT WEATHER MORE THAN WEEK IN ADVANCE.

The Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture is frequently asked how far in advance weather conditions may be reliably foretold. It is generally known among meteorologists that the forecasting of weather for more than a few days in advance is attended by great uncertainty, and for this reason no national weather service in any country attempts detailed forecasts of the weather for more than a week in advance. Beyond a week the forecasting of weather is attempted without a reliable and scientific basis therefore.

Mrs. Harry Hum invited twelve of daughter Miss Emma's friends last Friday evening to help her celebrate her 18th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in dancing and games and at twelve o'clock a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Hum. The party was a complete surprise to Miss Emma.

Mrs. N. W. Colbath has been quite seriously ill at her home, and the latter part of the week her children were called to her bedside. Mrs. Nellie Hart of Vassar, Mrs. Lora Craft of Newberry and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Colbath of Mt. Clemens arrived Friday morning to visit their mother. However Mrs. Colbath recovered sufficiently so that she accompanied her daughter Mrs. Hart to Vassar Tuesday, where she will undergo a series of medical treatments. Mrs. Craft remained for a few days longer visit with her father, the others all returning home.

Mrs. Adler Jorgenson's birthday fell on Wednesday and the following Saturday afternoon the "It Suits Us" club invaded her home much to her surprise. The ladies enjoyed playing "500" and a pot luck lunch was served. Mrs. Jorgenson was presented with a birthday gift from the club.

The following article appeared in last week's issue of the Lapeer County Press. "Monsignor P. R. Dunigan, former popular priest, was quite seriously injured by a fall from his horse at Flint Friday afternoon. Apparently a broken saddle girth caused the accident. Msgr. Dunigan was found unconscious on the road and could remember little of the mishap, except that he was thrown off the horse. He suffered a deep cut on his head and it was at first feared that complications might set in, but physicians dispelled that fear after the first 24 hours had passed. He is much improved now and will suffer no permanent ill effects from the accident."

Going to his cottage on the Ausable river last Friday, James O. Curwood of Orono was somewhat surprised when he opened the door to find the rooms in a rather upset condition. He and a party of friends were at the cottage during the early part of the winter but when they left things were in a tidy condition. Indications are that someone held a "real" party during his absence. Several empty bottles containing Canadian wet goods were left on the table; the dry wood in the kitchen burned up; dishes left unwashed and broken, the player piano broken, and things in general muddled up. Now the question is "who held the party?" —Roscommon Herald-News.

Engineer a Good Risk

In spite of the risks incident to their occupation, life insurance statistics show that locomotive engineers live just as long as the average man. The death rate from accident has been reduced very recently in recent years, and the engineers have also shared in the general reduction in the death rates from infectious diseases. Between the ages of thirty-one and fifty-five there has been a decline in the engineers' death rate of from 32 to 44 per cent. Fatal accidents in 1922 were at the rate of 167 per 100,000, as against 318 per 100,000 in 1912. So the expectation of life of a locomotive engineer at the age of twenty-eight is calculated as forty-one years. Aside from chances of accident, running a locomotive seems to be a healthful occupation.

STRAIGHT-LINE DAY DRESSES; KNITTED FROCKS FOR GIRLS

NEXT to the tailored suit in importance, rank those simple and indispensable all-day dresses, made of the various crepes, satin crepes and light woolens. They are just unpretentious enough to fit in almost anywhere and so cleverly varied as to be endlessly interesting. Their ranks have grown this spring by the addition of silk alpaca to the materials used for them—with barred and striped flannel at one end of the line, satin crepe at the other and alpaca neck to hem at one side, where a frill of plaited crepe and a long line of mother-of-pearl sequins in white with white embroidered batiste collar give it enviable distinction.

Some of these fine spring days little daughter will most likely come rushing into the house declaring, "It is too warm to wear my coat." Of course one cannot blame any little girl for this burst of enthusiasm, for has not all nature cast off the mantle of winter? But what is mother to do?

All-Day Dress of Satin Crepe.

between, there is chance for even greater diversity.

The all-day dress in any of these fabrics adheres to the slim-and-straight mode, following the lines of the figure closely but allowing the introduction of smart details for the sake of variety. Fullness at the sides, shaped flounces, panels, platings and tiered skirts, bloused bodices, sashes, different neck treatments and varied sleeves are among the things that contribute individually to frocks of this

There are even in the best of regulated spring seasons unwary shifts of cold and heat, winds and rains, sunshine and shadow and little girls are such a way of catching cold at this time of the year.

With knitted dresses in fashion as charming as is shown in this picture why be in a quandary? Frocks of this type knitted of soft woolen yarns are ideal for play and school time. They protect, yet are not cumbersome; are "comfy" and practical.

The frock here pictured is knitted of red wool with white bandings on the skirt. White braid forms the collar binding and the tie.

This season's knitted outerwear for children is fashioned after the style of their elders. That is, the same sweater models one sees in the knitted department for grownups are reproduced in miniature for children. The tuxedo sweater coat, for instance, and slipover with neckline and color variations look like pocket editions of big sister's very own.

An especially attractive and desirable model in lulliputian size is knitted of downy brushed wool bordered with plain stitch, or else with revers of the same. It has long sleeves, tailored pockets and comes especially in camel color, gray or white.

Little Girl's Frock of Red Wool.

kind. The pretty model pictured of satin crepe is a fine example of up-to-date designing, having tiers of the satin tucked in groups, a bloused bodice and an engaging neck finish which includes embroidered ties.

Many models have flaring sleeves and some of these are supplemented by lace or batiste or net undersleeves with wrist bands. Lace collars and jabots, sashes and decorative girdles are among other accessories that provide interest and color contrast to the day dress and high-colored platings are popular on the dresses of barred or striped flannel. A very handsome model of black, or dark, satin crepe, is plain and straight, fastened from

The side button style suggesting the Juliette delights the little girl because mother wears one so very like it.

There are slipovers for tiny tots with wide borders which show interknitted animal figures and these are adding joys to childhood not only in the way of comfort, but entertainment as well.

The long straight knitted capes for little girls are especially popular and they come in lovely colors. Surely every wee lass is going to aspire to the ownership of one of these cunning capes this season.

Useful Workbasket

The drudgery of the weekly mending is somewhat offset if one is the possessor of a roomy workbasket of wicker and green leather. The various needles, scissors, etc., are attached to the lid, and in the box itself there is a rod that holds nine spools of thread.

Wear Your Watch on a Fob

The watch fob to wear with the tailored suit is a delightful conceit.

The little watches are long and narrow and are suspended from about three inches of black grosgrain ribbon.

Popular Color

Powder blue, now worn by a number of stage favorites, is popular. With it the discerning woman places a bit of black. One powder blue hat was made striking by little black as trim this upright around the small brim, like tiny black pipe traws.

OPERATIONS FOR FEMALE TROUBLES

Some Are Necessary, Some Are Not These Women Gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Fairview, S. Dakota.—"A year ago I was sick in bed for three weeks and the doctor said I would not be any better without an operation. I had bearing-down pains and sick headaches, with pain in the back of my neck. I felt tired all the time, down-hearted, and got poor and pale and was scarcely able to do anything at all for some time before I took to my bed. The doctor said one of my organs was out of place and caused all my troubles. I was too weak and run-down to think of an operation and as one of my neighbors told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began taking it. I have received great relief from it and recommend it very highly. It cannot be praised too much in cases of female weakness."—Mrs. O. M. Ring, Box 106, Fairview, South Dakota.

New Jersey Woman Writes

Camden, New Jersey.—"I take great pleasure in writing you this testimonial. I was a great sufferer of woman's ailments and doctors told me 18 years ago that I must have a serious operation to remove some of my organs. I refused to have it done and took a full course of your medicine for six months, then after the full course I took a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound every week or two, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine every Spring. I am well and stout and still have my organs where they wanted to remove. It was while I was in the hospital that I heard your medicines praised by other patients there. I have recommended them to my friends and to my own family. You may use this testimonial far and near, from the smallest paper to the largest, and I will gladly answer letters from women who wish to know what the Vegetable Compound has done for me and what it will do for them if they give it a fair trial."—Mrs. J. Rich, 322 N. 40th St., Camden, New Jersey.

Through neglect, some female troubles may reach a stage where an operation is necessary, but most of the common ailments are not surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumor or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same.

Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after operations have been advised.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, over 100,000 replies were received and 98 out of every 100 reported that they had been benefited by its use. This statement is important to every woman. For sale at drug stores everywhere.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

R. D. BAILEY
County Agricultural Agent

LIVESTOCK LEGUMES LIMESTONE MEAN PROFITS IN FARMING

Money-Making Idea Number 20. Spend two or three evenings with your wife planning a large, well-arranged garden, one acre if you live in the country. Study the seed catalogues and order seeds liberally, including flowers.

Order seed corn and clover seed right now, or you will not be able to get any worth while. Order liberally to sow and plant larger fields than usual, and make a good start on that twenty-five dollars a week that your farm can take in.

Use the money-making idea now. $25 a Week. $25. Yes sir, I mean just that—twenty-five dollars a week can be taken in each and every week by each and every Crawford County farmer, on which the husband, wife and children will pull together and also put some good planning and management into their work. Just plain, blundering, thoughtless work won't do it, it takes planning, management, foresight, attention to little details to make a farm a pleasant place to live, and prosperous enough to be satisfying, just as much as in running a store, mill or factory.

$25, How Come? Through a good sized dairy herd, well-culled out, well fed, well stabled, well cared for. Sell the cream or butter from these. Feed the sour milk to 150 to 250 well-culled hens in a plain but clean, light hen house. Feed the rest of the skim milk to veal calves, and, particularly to a few good hogs in a snug, clean, warm pig pen. Always 50 or 60 pounds of butter, or 10-gallon can of cream to turn off. Always baskets of eggs, a veal, or a plump, dressed hog to turn off. Always quarts of cottage cheese, sausage, bacon, smoked hams, home-made lard, apples from the sprayed apple trees, cider, vinegar, jelly, fruit butter, parsnips, horse radish, strawberries, asparagus, rhubarb, sweet corn, early potatoes, peas, to turn off.

Bigger Volume of Business. Isn't a man asking quite a lot to expect satisfaction and much of a living from twelve or fifteen fat old hens, part of them past the laying age, in a lousy, cold, filthy coop, and from two or three cows fed a ration of straw, marsh hay and corn stalks, with no grain?

A hotel could not keep up on only two or three boarders. A store could not last on only two or three customers a day. Could a mill pay by saving one log where it had capacity for ten?

So, too many Crawford County farms are not doing big enough business so that a living income could, in reason, be expected from the little business turned over, or products turned off.

Let Out the Puckering Strings. We need bigger corn fields. A man can take good care of a good many acres of corn with two horses and a riding cultivator. More corn, more cows, more income.

More Legumes—Less Timothy. Legumes suitable here are alfalfa, mammoth clover, sweet clover, soy beans, vetch. They have an extra amount of the feed element called PROTEIN. Protein is what cows must have a lot for they can't give as much milk as their nature would allow.

Timothy is punk stuff for cows. I wouldn't grow it. Grow legumes. 3-7-11. Calling the feed value of timothy 3, then the feed value of clover is 7, and the feed value of alfalfa is 11.

No Dream. Come Up. I didn't dream this. It is the feed value as shown in the tables of feed values. Come up to the office and I will show you the tables in Henry's "Feeds and Feeding."

Once—Twice. We cut timothy once; alfalfa twice. Did you ever hear a farmer regret that he had a field of alfalfa? Be a sport and try a shot at a five-acre field of alfalfa this spring.

There's a big chance that there is a spot on your farm containing enough lime to grow it. I'll help you get the seed that won't kill out here. I'll come out with the soil tester and test your soil to find the spot where it will grow, if you want me to.

Sweet Clover, By All Means. Sweet clover is a close relative to alfalfa. It's a two-year plant. Seed quite cheap, lots cheaper than alfalfa. Great stuff for hay for cows or horses. Great pasture. Never bloats. Grows where alfalfa won't. Let me help you get started in this.

Soy Beans Anyway. A soil so sour (lacking lime) that alfalfa, clover, or sweet clover wouldn't grow knee high to a grass hogger, and so infertile (poor) that you can scarcely raise a disturbance on it, will grow a nice crop of soy beans.

Soy beans are a legume almost as rich in protein (milk making food substance) as alfalfa. Seed cheap ($3 a bushel). Plant at corn planting time. Cultivate three times. Cut nice crop of rich hay late in August. I got a lot of seed (about 5000 lbs), used here in 1922. Everyone who had soy bean hay said it was great for cows.

Better try five (5) acres of soy beans. 1-1-1. One acre of carrots. One acre of mangles. One acre of ruta bagas, then you are all set to feed well next winter and to rake in that $25 a week.

Prune Now. By the time this reaches you, it will be time to prune fruit trees, shade trees, bush fruits and shrubs. Don't Make Them Look Like the Devil.

I notice many shade and fruit trees so pruned that there is left a stub or horn from a quarter of an inch to an inch in length. The tree can never heal there; but, the stub will rot away back into the tree, giving it a rotten heart, causing it to die or blow over years before its time.

As the devil is said to have horns,

I suggest that trees be not pruned to make them look like the devil.

That Wood Pile. Snow will soon be gone. We will soon start the teams afield. We will be busy. Time on the fields will be precious to an energetic farmer. It takes wood to cook our meals. It can't be very pleasant to hear, just as you go out to hitch up in the morning "Now Henry, I haven't got any wood. Don't you dare go off and leave me without wood." It must be about as pleasant to have to drop the lines and take the old axe and pound off a few sticks as it is for a dog to have a tin can tied to its tail. But, the farmer who has not provided a good pile of dry wood, sufficient for months ahead, deserves what he gets.

I can think of some Crawford County farms that have splendid long piles of dry wood. Why not all?

Early Potatoes. Those farmers who plant an acre of very early potatoes will have something to bring in a little change at the right time. I know where there are 90 bushels of early seed at one dollar a bushel. I have samples in my office. Plant a quarter acre extra early, a month earlier than usual. Ten days later, plant another quarter acre. Ten days later, plant the rest of the acre.

Should the first quarter be threatened with frost, set the blades of the cultivator to throw dirt outwards. Go up and down the rows and throw a little dirt over the young plants. Soak seed thirty minutes in four ounces corrosive sublimate dissolved in 30 gallons of water.

There's money in this. Try a shot at an acre of extra early potatoes. You can't lose. It will be a start on that $25 a week that you can make your farm bring you.

Bravolette. A new material, bravolette, is used by a German inventor in the manufacture of safety razors. It looks like ivory, tortoise shell or marble, depending on the manner in which it is manufactured. The advantage of this material lies in the fact that the apparatus cannot rust. There is no need to dry the razor after use, it is sufficient to rinse it. Another advantage is that it is cheaper than razors made of metal.

$200 to $400 Saved

On This Light-Six Touring Car

By our matchless facilities—our enormous production

HERE is a car priced at $1,045. Built by ordinary methods it would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

It is in scores of ways the leader of its class. No rival car compares in the value that it offers.

Let us tell you how we give that value, then urge you to see this car.

A sensation

Studebaker is today the world's largest builder of quality cars. Studebaker success is the sensation of Motordom.

Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year, 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

There are tremendous reasons for this rush to Studebaker cars. And every man who buys a car should know them.

72-year traditions

The Studebaker name has for 72 years stood for quality and class. To build an ordinary car under that name is unthinkable.

Our assets are $90,000,000—all at stake on serving you better than all others.

We have $50,000,000 in model plants, equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines. We have 23,000 workers, under profit-sharing plans which lead them to stay and develop.

We spend on engineering $500,000 yearly. We employ 1,200 men to give 32,000 inspections to each Studebaker car in the making.

We are lavish

We are lavish in things that count.

We pay 15% bonus on some steels to get them exactly right. We use genuine leather in our cushions. We use curled hair.

We use more Timken bearings in this Light-Six than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Our bodies are beautiful creations. The finish and coach work show the final touch. But we build them in $10,000,000 body plants of our own, and pay for these extras in savings.

Where we save

We save by enormous production—150,000 cars per year. Our major costs are all divided by that enormous output. It is utterly impossible for smaller makers to compete.

We save by modern plants, mostly built in the past five years. We save by up-to-date machines. By building our own parts and bodies.

See what this car offers

Come see what this Light-Six offers. How it excels in scores of ways any rival car.

Built with the same steels, the same care and skill, as the costliest of our cars. We have only one grade of chassis.

See its beauty, its comfort, its luxury. See how we have studied your every desire.

Do that and you will choose this car, if you have in mind a price anywhere near this.

Send for the book

Mail us the coupon below. We will send you free our new book that will inform you on five simple things which reveal the value of a car. For instance—

It will enable you to look at any car and tell whether it's been cheapened to meet a price or offers true quality.

It will tell you why some cars rattle at 20,000 miles and others don't. It shows one single point in a closed car which measures whether you're getting top or medium quality. The book is free. Clip the coupon below.

Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car—$1,045

Same steels as we use in the costliest cars we build. More Timken bearings than in any competitive car within $1,500 of this price.

Genuine leather cushions, ten inches deep. Curled hair filling. All-steel body.

One-piece, rain-proof windshield. Attractive cowl lights. Standard non-skid cord tires.

Transmission and ignition locks. Perfect motor balance. Curtains that open with the doors.

By far the greatest value in this class.

Mail coupon for book about it

We machine all surfaces of our crankshafts and connecting rods, as was done in the Liberty Airplane motors. No other maker of cars at our prices does this. The result is that perfect motor balance, lack of vibration and long life.
